

Noughts and Crosses

Play just like a Colonial kid! Today, the game is called "Tic Tac Toe" but Colonial children called it Noughts and Crosses. In this partner game, one person is the Noughts (O's – Nought is a term for Zero). The other person is the Crosses (X). Switch off turns. First person to get 3 in a row wins!

